By late accounts the seash soldiers didn't have godliness nor the next thing to it—cleanliness.

ORDER No. 10.—Attention is directed to General Order No. 10, published elsewhere in our columns.

The Gold Hill News says that if the Confederacy is where the editor thinks it is, Jeff Davis ought to be sent to "pre-emptory" its destinies.

THE Troops at Camp Douglas, U. T. will be reviewed, inspected and mustered for pay to-day at 10 o'clock a. m. by Major Jno O'Neil, 2d Cav., C. Vols. commanding Post.

NEVADA.—Some people abbreviate the name of the State of Nevada, on envelopes and newspaper wrappers, "Na." That is liable to be, as it has often been, misinterpreted for "Nebraska." Write it Nev., and no mistake need be made.

The ice-cream establishments are making cords of money these tropic times. Riethmann's Empire Bakery saloon is crowded nightly with the beau monde of every creed, calling for "congealed bovine exultants" and "sich." See card.

A self-cancelling postage stamp is recorded among the latest inventions. It is put upon the letter, face downward, and leaves an impression, but is destroyed on removal. The Department in Washington is testing and may probably adopt them.

THERE is a place in Santa Clara county, Cal., where the trout are fifteen inches long and very apt to bite; but the bears are a good deal bigger and equally ravenous. So the fish are not often made the victims of misplaced confidence in mankind.

WANTED—by a bachelor jeweler—a wife with a neck of pearl, ruby lips, brilliant eyes, golden hair, a silvery tongue and a perfect jewel of a temper.

Hope he'll get her—but not here. We shouldn't like to spare her—you know. That's what's the matter!

YELLOW envelope paper, after being lighted and the flame blown out, will continue to burn until entirely consumed. White papers do not possess this property. Chemists allege that it is the coloring matter which renders this kind of paper more combustible than other qualities.

GAIL Hamilton says one can be daughter, sister, friend, without impeachment of one's sagacity or integrity; but it is a dreadful indorsement of a man to marry him. Wonder if that's the reason she hasn't allowed her name to go on anybody's paper for to these thirty years.

They haul a certain kind of coal one hundred miles from the southern part of Utah, to supply the Salt Lake blacksmiths. They say it is twice as better for Vulcan's uses than the coal that's twenty or thirty miles from town. The former commands $40 per ton, delivered.

ORDERS from Washington to Captain Fleming Provost Marshal of San Francisco, direct that no bounties be allowed recruits for volunteer service after May 30th. Recruits for regiments in the regular service will be received as usual, and it is supposed they will receive bounties.

The Seneca Falls, Kansas, Courier, in noticing the call put forth for a dress reform convention next month, records the historical fact that Mrs. Bloomer, now residing at Council Bluffs, Iowa, long since abandoned the costume introduced by her, and which still bears her name. She no longer wears the breeches.

"All quiet from Bridger to the Black Hills," writes Mr. McCool, of Gurney & Co's, from the former point, on Tuesday last. Passengers arriving there reported the road uninfested by redskins from Denver to Fort Bridger, for the past few days or week. It is hoped it will keep on so. The troops are now being stationed at the North Platte Crossing, Sage Creek, Sulphur Springs, etc., so as to guarantee quiet travel for the future.

In Pennsylvania a post-office has been discontinued for want of some person who would be bothered with the duties thereof. Great Salt Lake could furnish hundreds of "loyal" chaps who would take that, or any office they could get, from town pump to president of a sand-bank, provided greenbacks would accrue. The fall of gold and the rebellion made many selfish croakers here and elsewhere awful "loyal" all at once. We hope they'll keep so, and not backslide into irreverence for that Union which protected them even when they preached and practiced deadly opposition to its interests.

No Issue To-Morrow.—Our home and distant patrons will please excuse the non-appearance of the Bulletin to-morrow, as our compositors and pressmen, being soldiers, were summoned to attend Review, Inspection and Muster, by imperative orders from the officer at present in command at Camp Douglas. The present and the next succeeding issues will contain extra amounts of matter to make good the day's omission. No telegrams being received just now, we trust its non-appearance will be excused.

THE coming "Fourth" is to be celebrated by the loyal citizens of Utah and the officers and soldiers at Camp Douglas, in a splendid manner. The Rev. N. McLeod is to deliver the oration at the Camp Theatre. A "Social" is to be given by the Y. M. L. Association of S. Lake City, in the evening and the "Boys in Blue" will trip the "light fantastic" at the Camp Douglas Hall. We hope to see a full turn out of all the loyal community of Utah, in honor of the second grandest "Fourth of July" ever celebrated in the United States.

THE BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.—Dealers and the public in this Territory, out-fitters to the northern mines, and men and women generally, are directed to new advertisement of the extensive boot and shoe establishment of Gurney & Co., of this city. Their wholesale and retail house is situated on Main street, next to the telegraph office, where constantly is kept an immense, assorted stock of custom made boots, shoes and gaiters, of the finest styles, fashionable and serviceable. Their present supply is splendid, and is being increased by new additions regularly receiving from their own manufactory in the States. This enterprising firm have also large stocks in Virginia, Montana, and Idaho City, Idaho. Drop in at either place, whenever you want to strike good bargains.

PROVOKING!—A young lady composed some verses for a contemporary east of us, heading them "Dewdrops from freshly blown roses." The printer's devil printed it—"Freshly blown noses!" This is but an average sample of the sorry accidents that oftentimes occur in putting manuscript into print. We have frequently flown into fits, for years past, seeing some such mistakes occur from time to time, after using all the possible precaution to prevent it. For the past few weeks a word or letter has occasionally smuggled itself into the Bulletin, which greatly changed the meaning, but was accidentally overlooked until too late to remedy.

Once for all, whenever you note a word or sentence, punctuation point or character that is unintelligible or incorrect, please debit it to accident rather than ignorance or design. Bear this in mind, and blame us lightly.

NOSES.—Some recent writer—name now forgotten—speaking of this member of the facial organs, fancies that the nose wasn't placed in such proximity to the instrument of vocal sound for nothing; and adds that it is not only an index of musical capacity in its proprietor, but an excellent musician, of itself. The idea struck us at the time as true, though novel; so much so that we notice noses with the closeness of the chap that thinks he knows the noses' owners. Large-nosed folks are frequently most enterprising and go-ahead-ative of any others—the first to run after a horse, rush out from a steamboat, repair to a race-track, realize a good living, and retire rich. In practical matters, if you'll notice it, they most often take the lead—clear the way—and conquer obstacles where organs of less size would fail to penetrate. Physiognomy says there's something "striking" in the nose—though anybody, who knows anything of noses, knows as much as that.

HO! TO THE WEST.—The easterners with leisure and urgent at command, are troubled sorely, at the present season, as to where to go on health excursions to see the newest novelties. Saratoga and Cape May are what we classically call "played out." Europe is almost in the same condition. Asia would prove jumping from the frying pan into the fire; and thus, the dear down-easters are now horribly non-plussed. To all such we say: Come out to the Great West; come on a sixty days' excursion, to Great Salt Lake, and thence to San Francisco. There's how you can get your health and money back. Here's where all you don't know-what-to-do-with-your-time kind of people can make investments on a gold and silver basis, that will enrich you monetarily as the excursion will invigorate you physically. If you're in love with nature, here's the place to hold communion with her visible forms. Here's the place where piscators and poets can put in the time to true advantage, musing 'mid the peaked Parnassus, or making captives of the speckled monarchs of our mountain brooks. Yes, come out to this Paradise of peaches and saluts, prospect for silver and gold, and, as the Sierras by coach, and sail on the homeward Pacific.

How few, comparatively, of the folks you meet here on the streets abound in smiles. They appear as solemn, simple, cunning or cast down, as if this life militant was one cold and selfish state of servitude, without a well-spring of cheerfulness to console 'em on the round trip. The women, too, are touched with this same sort of mien and manner, making you believe they buried their best friend. It seems as if this habit was fallen into from a misconception of their mission. A lack of native independence, intelligent ideas of true life, and, perhaps, this polygamic practice of mistreating every one who is not of their household, has something chief to do with it. A woman, more so than a man, has no natural gift more charming than a smile, and none which she should cultivate with more profit to her health and happiness. Though their misguided marriage leaves them little margin for enjoying lady-like nobility, independence and ambition for the higher attributes and admiration of the outer world, still the smile—though it be sardonic—can show or sunshine even on the tread-mill they are taught to travel.

Mrs. PARTINGTON'S LAST.—The old lady has got off some spicy, sharp and smutty sayings in her life-time, for all of which we hold her as a genius; but her latest is the greatest, of the kind. It runs in this wise: Isaac was reading to his mother the head lines of one of the telegraph columns of the Commercial, of Tuesday last, and when he came to "Jeff Davis to be confined at Fort Lafayette," the good old lady threw up her hands, exclaiming: "Laws-a-me! I knew that he wore petticoats, but I didn't think that would happen to him!"

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTS.

United States
7.30 LOAN.
Third Series.
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General subscription Agent for the sale of United States securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1863, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5.20 Six per Cent.
Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent, amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coins at 6 per cent, instead of semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight increase made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with 5 x per cent, in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent, in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great popular Loan of the People.
Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and private Banks throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receive orders.

Of love and peace thou'rt sweetly singing;
But diamond be thy point, my pen,
When crime's dumb bells are round thee ringing.

They have green corn in the California towns.

These summer days, like our own lives, are gradually getting shorter.

OWTHER, Idaho, is said to have the richest silver ledges in the world.

By late accounts the seceded soldiers didn't have godliness nor the next thing to it—cleanliness.

ORDER No. 10.—Attention is directed to General Order No. 10, published elsewhere in our columns.

The Gold Hill News says that if the Confederacy is where the editor thinks it is, Jeff Davis ought to be sent to "pre-side over its destinies."

The Troops at Camp Douglas, U. T. will be reviewed, inspected and mustered for pay to-day at 10 o'clock a. m. by Major Jno O'Neill, 2d Cav., C. Vols. commanding Post.

NEVADA.—Some people abbreviate the name of the State of Nevada, on envelopes and newspaper wrappers, "Na." That is liable to be, as it has often been, misinterpreted for "Nebraska." Write it Nev., and no mistake need be made.

The ice-cream establishments are making cords of money these tropic times. Riethmann's Empire Bakery saloon is crowded nightly with the beau monde of every creed, calling for "congealed bovine excrements" and "sich." See card.

A self-cancelling postage stamp is recorded among the latest inventions. It is put upon the letter, face downward, and leaves an impression, but is destroyed on removal. The Department in Washington is testing and may probably adopt them.

THERE is a place in Santa Clara county, Cal., where the trout are fifteen inches long and very apt to bite; but the bears are a good deal bigger and equally voracious. So the fish are not often made the victims of misplaced confidence in mankind.

WANTED.—by a bachelor jeweler—a wife with a neck of pearl, ruby lips, brilliant eyes, golden hair, a silvery tongue and a perfect jewel of a temper. Hope he'll get her—but not here. We shouldn't like to spare her—you know. That's what's the matter!

YELLOW envelope paper, after being lighted and the flame blown out, will continue to burn until entirely consumed. White papers do not possess this property. Chemists allege that it is the coloring matter which renders this kind of paper more combustible than other qualities.

GAIL Hamilton says one can be daughter, sister, friend, without impeachment of one's sagacity or integrity; but it is a dreadful indorsement of a man to marry him. Wonder if that's the reason she hasn't allowed her name to go on anybody's paper for to these thirty years!

They haul a certain kind of coal one hundred miles, from the southern part of Utah, to supply the Salt Lake blacksmiths. They say it is twice as better for Vulcan's uses than the coal that's twenty or thirty miles from town. The former commands $40 per ton, delivered.

ORDERS from Washington to Captain Fleming Provost Marshal of San Francisco, direct that no bounties be allowed recruits for volunteer service after May 30th. Recruits for regulars in the regular service will be received as usual, and it is supposed they will receive bounties.

THE Seneca Falls, Kansas, Courier, in noticing the call put forth for a dress reform convention next month, records the historical fact that Mrs. Bloomer, now residing at Council Bluffs, Iowa, long since abandoned the costume introduced by her, and which still bears her name. She no longer wears the breeches.

"ALL quiet from Bridger to the Black Hills," writes Mr. McCool, of Gurney & Co's, from the former point, on Tuesday last. Passengers arriving there reported the road uninfested by red skins from Denver to Fort Bridger, for the past few days or week. It is hoped it will keep on so. The troops are now being stationed at the North Platte Crossing, Sage Creek, Sulphur Springs, etc., so as to guarantee quiet travel for the future.

In Pennsylvania a post-office has been discontinued for want of some person who would be bothered with the duties thereof. Great Salt Lake could furnish hundreds of "loyal" chaps who would take that, or any office they could get, from town pump to president of a sand-bank, provided greenbacks would accrue. The fall of gold and the rebellion made many selfish croakers here and elsewhere awfully "loyal," all at once. We hope they'll keep so, and not backslide into irreverence for that Union which protected them even when they preached and practiced deadly opposition to its interests.

No Issue To-Morrow.—Our home and distant patrons will please excuse the non-appearance of the Tidette to-morrow, as our compositors and pressmen, being soldiers, were summoned to attend Review, Inspection and Muster, by imperative orders from the officer at present in command at Camp Douglas. The present and the next succeeding issues will contain extra amounts of matter to make good the day's omission. No telegrams being received just now, we trust its non-appearance will be excused.

THE coming "Fourth" is to be celebrated by the loyal citizens of Utah and the officers and soldiers at Camp Douglas, in a splendid manner. The Rev. N. McLeod is to deliver the oration at the Camp Theatre. A "Social" is to be given by the Y. M. C. Association of S. Lake City, in the evening and the "Boys in Blue" will trip the "light fantastic" at the Camp Douglas Hall. We hope to see a full turn out of all the loyal community of Utah, in honor of the second grandest "Fourth of July" ever celebrated in the United States.

THE BOOT AND SHOE TRADE.—Dealers and the public in this Territory, outfitters to the northern mines, and men and women generally, are directed to new advertisement of the extensive boot and shoe establishment of Gurney & Co., of this city. Their wholesale and retail house is situated on Main street, next to the telegraph office, where constantly is kept an immense, assorted stock of custom made boots, shoes and gaiters, of the finest styles, fashionable and serviceable. Their present supply is splendid, and is being increased by new additions regularly receiving from their own manufactory in the States. This enterprising firm have also large stocks in Virginia, Montana, and Idaho City, Idaho. Drop in at either place, whenever you want to strike good bargains.

PROVOKING!—A young lady composed some verses for a contemporary east of us, heading them "Dewdrops from freshly blown roses." The printer's devil printed it—"Freshly blown noses!" This is but an average sample of the sorry accidents that oftentimes occur in putting manuscript into print. We have frequently flown into fits, for years past, seeing some such mistakes occur from time to time, after using all the possible precaution to prevent it. For the past few weeks a word or letter has occasionally smuggled itself into the Tidette, which greatly changed the meaning, but was accidentally overlooked until too late to remedy. Once for all, whenever you note a word or sentence, punctuation point or character that is unintelligible or incorrect, please debit it to accident rather than ignorance or design. Bear this in mind, and blame us lightly.

NOTES.—Some recent writer—name now forgotten—speaking of this member of the facial organs, fancies that the nose wasn't placed in such proximity to the instrument of vocal sound for nothing; and adds that it is not only an index of musical capacity in its proprietor, but an excellent musician, of itself. The idea struck us at the time as true, though novel; so much so that we notice noses with the closeness of the chap that thinks he knows the noses' owners. Large-nosed folks are frequently most enterprising and go-ahead-ative of any others,—the first to run after a horse, rush out from a steamboat, repair to a race-track, realize a good living, and retire rich. In practical matters, if you'll notice it, they most often take the lead—clear the way—and conquer obstacles where organs of less size would fail to penetrate. Physiognomy says there's something "striking" in the nose—though any body, who knows anything of noses, knows as much as that.

HO! TO THE WEST.—The easterners with leisure and argent at command, are troubled sorely, at the present season, as to where to go on health excursions to see the newest novelties. Saratoga and Cape May are what we classically call "played out." Europe is almost in the same condition. Asia would prove jumping from the frying pan into the fire; and thus, the dear down-easters are now horribly non-plussed. To all such we say: Come out to the Great West; come on a sixty days' excursion, to Great Salt Lake, and thence to San Francisco. There's how you can get your health and money back. Here's where all you don't know-what-to-do-with-your-time kind of people can make investments on a gold and silver basis, that will enrich you monetarily; for the excursion will invigorate you physically. If you're in love with nature, here's the place to hold communion with her visible forms. Here's the place where piscators and poets can put in the time to true advantage, musing 'mid the peaked Parnassus, or making captives of the speckled monarchs of our mountain brooks. Yes, come out to this Paradise of peaches and saints, prospect for silver and gold, scale the Sierras by coach, and sail on the bondless Pacific.

How few, comparatively, of the folks you meet here on the streets abound in smiles. They appear as solemn, simple, cunning or cast down, as if this life militant was one cold and selfish state of servitude, without a well-spring of cheerfulness to console 'em on the round trip. The women, too, are touched with this same sort of mien and manner, making you believe they buried their best friend. It seems as if this habit was fallen into from a misconception of their mission; a lack of native independence, intelligent ideas of true life, and, perhaps, this polygamic practice of mistrusting every one who is not of their household, has something chief to do with it. A woman, more so than a man, has no natural gift more charming than a smile, and none which she should cultivate with more profit to her health and happiness. Though their misguided marriage leaves them little margin for enjoying lady-like nobility, independence and ambition for the higher attributes and admiration of the outer world, still the smile—though it be sardonic—can show sunshine even on the tread-mill they are taught to travel.

Mrs. PARTINGTON'S LAST.—The old lady has got off some spicy, sharp and smutty sayings in her life-time, for all of which we hold her as a genius; but her latest is the greatest, of the kind. It runs in this wise: Isaac was reading to his mother the head lines of one of the telegraph columns of the Commercial, of Tuesday last, and when he came to "Jeff Davis to be confined at Fort LeFayette," the good old lady threw up her hands, exclaiming: "Laws-a-me! I knew that he wore petticoats, but I didn't think that would happen to him!"

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTS.

United States
7.30 LOAN.
Third Series.
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, General subscription Agent for the sale of United States securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per Cent.

Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent, amounts to
One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent, instead of 7.30 in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on to July 15th, at the time when the subscription.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent, in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the
Great popular Loan of the People.
Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscription to other Loans.
In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and private Banks throughout the country have been authorized to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receipts are given.

The Blue Great Coat

You ask me, little one, why I bowed,
Through I never placed the hand before;
Because my heart was full and proud,
When I saw the old blue coat he wore.

CHORUS.
The blue great coat, the sky blue coat,
The old blue coat the soldier wore.

Know not I what weapon he chose:
What chief he followed, what badge he wore;
Enough that in the front of his
His country's blue great coat he wore.

Perhaps he was born in a forest hut,
Perhaps he had danced on a palace floor;
To wealth or wealth my eyes were shut,
I only marked the coat he wore.

It mattered not much if he drew his line
From Sham or Han in the days of yore,
For surely he was a brother of mine,
Who for my sake the war coat wore.

He might have so skill to read or write,
Or he might be rich in the learned lore;
But I know he could make his mark in fight,
And soldier gown no scholar wore.

It may be he could plunder and prove,
And perhaps in his pocket he carried a sword;
But I would not guess a spot so foul
On the honored coat he bravely wore.

He had worn it long and borne it far,
And perhaps on the red Virginia shore,
From midnight chill till the morning star,
That worn blue coat the steady wore.

When hardy Butler reigned his steed,
Through the streets of proud, proud Baltimore,
Perhaps behind him, at his need,
Marched he who yonder blue coat wore.

Perhaps it was seen in Burnside's ranks,
When Appomattock ran dark with gore;
Perhaps on the mountain side with Banks,
In the burning sun he no more wore.

Perhaps in the swamps was a bed for his form,
From the seven days' battling and marching;
Or with Kearny and Pope, 'mid the steady storm,
As the night closed in that coat he wore.

Or when right over us Jackson dashed,
That collar or cape some bullet tore;
Or when far ahead Antietam dashed,
He flung to the ground the coat that he wore.

Or stood a Gettysburg, where the graves
Rang deep to Howard's cannon roar;
Or saw with Grant the unchained waves,
Where conquering hosts the blue coat wore.

That guard of honor tells enough,
Though I its story guess no more;
The heart it covers is made of such stuff,
That coat is made of that coat that he wore.

He may hang it up, now peace has come,
And the moth may find it behind the door;
But his children will point when they hear a drum,
To the proud old coat their father wore.

And so, my child, will you and I,
For whose fair home their blood they pour,
Still, on the head as one goes by,
Who wears the coat that soldier wore.

The blue great coat, the sky blue coat,
The old blue coat the soldier wore.
—Bishop Burgess of Maine.

A GLIMPSE AT THE NEW YORK PARK—
A quaint writer in the New York World in a long and finely descriptive article upon the park, touches gently upon his visitors thus: But the people passing by affect us more than the spacious sweeping bridges. These bridges ought to be mentioned in connection with Gibraltar's gates which Michael Angelo said should open paradise. Some of these viaducts should be its draw bridges. Whom do we see? All orders and professions pass by in turn; the fine head of Commodore
Vanderbilt is followed by the rubicund face of Phineas Barnum, who can see if he turns around, the grave countenance of Commander Worden, hard at hand to our rare New York poet, Richard Henry
Stoddard, sandwiched between Mrs.
Freemont and Robert Bonner. Here is Fred. C. Crighton, our whilom camp companion, and jester of bloody actions, with the thoughtful face of Orpheus C.
Kerr, guiding his graceful sorrel. Then pass Lester Wallace, and Henry Ward
Beecher, and Anna Dickinson, and John
Morrison, in separate teams, of course, but quite cool in this republican expense, and so well pleased with everything that they cannot make faces at each other.
